Re: Application of Norma Jewell Hansen Zaniewski
Ancestor George Wood
(Your letter Dated 29 April 1999) Chapter Code 5-043 WI

Taking the items requested point by point as listed,

Proof of parentage of Lydia W. Pearce and Phebe Wood:
See copy of pages of booklet, Abstracts of Wills of Cayuga Co. New York Vol I by Gertrude A. Barber (1947). Referring to page 114 of the record book, will of James "Pierce" of Sempronius dated 14 March 1820, probated 23 September 1820, which mentions wife Phebe, daughter Lydia and others. I ordered a copy of the will from Cayuga Co. Surrogate's Court, mentioned on the title page and received a reply dated 18 May. They preferred not to search for records that old and referred me to Cayuga Co. Historical Society which I wrote to on 24 May enclosing a check. No response has been received so far, though I am ever hopeful. Until I am able to acquire a copy of the actual document, I am hopeful you will accept this copy of abstract as proof of Lydia's parentage and partial proof of Phebe's marriage to James Pearce. Rhode Island town records show births, but early New York town records do not. My ancestress had to be the one born shortly after they arrived in New York!

Not knowing Rhode Island customs, I wrote to Newport County for a copy of George Wood's will listing Phebe Pearce as his daughter. They referred me to Little Compton, to which I sent a check some time ago but have received no response. I also asked for marriage record.

But except for will contents, the same information is printed in Vital Records of Rhode Island 1636-1850 by James N. Arnold (1893) printed under the Auspices of the Rhode Island General Assembly. In this book, Little Compton - Births and Deaths Vol. IV page 199 it shows that Phebe was daughter of George Wood born Nov 2, 1730 and died June 1820 and his second wife, Desire Gray born July 7, 1735, died March 1822. (copy enclosed here) Phebe was born May 9 1763. The same volume, page 146, shows that Phebe's husband, James Pearce, son of Giles and Mercy (Rouse)(Schreech) Pearce, was born on Aug. 15, 1755 (copy enclosed here). Volume 4, Little Compton Marriages and Intentions Part VI on page 46 shows that James Pearce, son of Giles and Mercy, married Phebe Wood, daughter of George and Desire; married by Rev. Jonathan Ellis on July 2, 1783. (copy enclosed--the print on this very old book was slightly faded.)

It seems to me that vital record books, when they are that specific, ought to be adequate proof of Phebe Wood's descent and marriage to James Pearce.

A second set of copies of Dodge Family Bible pages enclosed, because answers to questions on next page are answered therein.

Proof of date and place of birth for Dwight Dodge, Lydia W. Pearce, James Pearce and Phebe Wood.

As mentioned on the previous page, the Little Compton Rhode Island Births and Deaths for James and Phebe are enclosed here. Date and place of birth of Dwight Dodge and Lydia Woodman Pearce, his second wife, are given on the photostatic copies from the family bible of Rev. Dwight Dodge, enclosed here, which shows that Dwight was born 28 May 1798 in "Stirbridge State of Massachusett, County of Wossester," and "Lydia W. Pearce the Second Wife of Dwight Dodge was born in Schoharie Town and County in the month of October the 6th 1802."

Proof of date and place of death for all of the above (except Dwight Dodge) and John Stefan Zaniewski, Victor E. Hansen, William W. White, Mary Lydia Dunn, Lemuel Dunn and Emma A. Dodge.

The old Dodge Bible pages are nearly 200 years old and much deteriorated, so they are not very easy to read. Your original reviewer evidently deciphered only the date of Dwight Dodge's death, but they contain a wealth of other information, including, in a later hand, "Lydia Woodman Dodge died at Kingston, Caldwell County Missouri, August 4, 1881." Since the abstract of will does not give James Pearce's exact date of death. It was 22 July 1820 but I can't prove it without quoting a genealogy. I have a copy of the 1820 census, of Sempronius TWP. Cayuga Co NY wich shows the widow Phebe and her family living on a farm next to that of her son Giles Pearce, if you want it as added proof. She died there 25 June 1842 but I do not have proof to give you. Her children were all grown with families of their own. She lived not far from Dwight Dodge, who was a minister, and attended his congregation.

Though christened John Stefan Zaniewski, my late husband disliked the name and called himself John Anthony. Due to his severe disease of alcoholism we were not living together at the time of his death. His death certificate is enclosed.

My family has tried several times to get a death certificate for my father, Victor E. Hansen, and been unsuccessful. In case there had been a mistake by the people in Wyandotte Co. KS, I wrote again this spring at the same time I received the copy of my parents' marriage certificate. There is nothing else I can do, but I hope you will overlook it because the Revolutionary War descent is not through him, both of his parents having come from Denmark. His father was a very successful Hardware merchant in LeMars, Iowa. If you want them I can supply you with his mother's death certificate and his father's obituary, but they do not mention Victor, who predeceased his father by many years. My paternal grandparents were Simoni and Karen Christine (Madsen) Hansen. Birth registration in Iowa was not mandatory until 1921. Vic was only 24 years old when he died in Kansas leaving behind me (a 2-year-old) and a pregnant young wife. My sister, Billie Gene Hansen, was born 25 January 1926 at Kingston, MO. She may also wish to join the DAR. She is now living in Columbia, Missouri, with her husband, retired University of Missouri Engineering Professor Allan Pringle.

I wrote to the courthouse at Kingston for death certificates for William Wesley White, Mary Lydia (Dunn) White and Emma A. (Dodge) Dunn. These have not come yet so a reminder letter has been sent. Newspaper obituaries for Grandpa White (which refers to Grandma's 1953 death) and for Great Grandma Dunn are enclosed. These should be alternative proofs of death.

(3) Ancestor: George Wood. Applicant: Norma Zaniewski Chapt 5-043-WI

The enclosed copy of Administrator's Bond of the estate of Lemuel Dunn shows that he died in March 1883 in Kingston. The affidavit lists widow Emma and daughter Mary Dunn among the heirs. The original is part of the records at the Courthouse in Kingston where he had been a lawyer, Clerk of Courts, and sometimes Circuit & County Court Judge. The courthouse later burned down and was rebuilt, so we are lucky the probate records and a few others survived.

Proof of date and place of marriage for Ada White & Victor E. Hansen; William W. White & Mary Lydia Dunn; Lemuel Dunn & Emma A. Dodge; James Pearce & Phebe Wood.

(3) Ancestor: George Wood. Applicant: Norma Zaniewski Chapt 5-043-WI

The enclosed copy of Administrator's Bond of the estate of Lemuel Dunn shows that he died in March 1883 in Kingston. The affidavit lists widow Emma and daughter Mary Dunn among the heirs. The original is part of the records at the Courthouse in Kingston where he had been a lawyer, Clerk of Courts, and sometimes Circuit & County Court Judge. The courthouse later burned down and was rebuilt, so we are lucky the probate records and a few others survived.

Proof of date and place of marriage for Ada White & Victor E. Hansen; William W. White & Mary Lydia Dunn; Lemuel Dunn & Emma A. Dodge; James Pearce & Phebe Wood.

Marriage certificates and/or courthouse official records are enclosed for the first three couples. Vital Records of Rhode Island Vol 4 Little Compton Part VI page 48 showing Phebe and James' marriage is enclosed, as mentioned on page 1.

This covers all of the documentation you requested. I hope you will accept my application. I certify that all the information is correct.

Sincerely,

Norma Jewell Hansen Zaniewski

Proof of date and place of birth for Dwight Dodge, Lydia W. Pearce, and Phebe Wood.

(2) Ancestor: George Wood. Applicant: Norma Zaniewski Chapt 5-043-WI

Proof of date and place of birth for Dwight Dodge, Lydia W. Pearce, James Pearce and Phebe Wood.

As mentioned on the previous page, the Little Compton Rhode Island Births and Deaths for James and Phebe are enclosed here. Date and place of birth of Dwight Dodge and Lydia Woodman Pearce, his second wife, are given on the photostatic copies from the family bible of Rev. Dwight Dodge, enclosed here, which shows that Dwight was born 28 May 1798 in "Stirbridge State of Massachusett, County of Wossester," and "Lydia W. Pearce the Second Wife of Dwight Dodge was born in Schoharie Town and County in the month of October the 6th 1802."

Proof of date and place of death for all of the above (except Dwight Dodge) and John Stefan Zaniewski, Victor E. Hansen, William W. White, Mary Lydia Dunn, Lemuel Dunn and Emma A. Dodge.

The old Dodge Bible pages are nearly 200 years old and much deteriorated, so they are not very easy to read. Your original reviewer evidently deciphered only the date of Dwight Dodge's death, but they contain a wealth of other information, including, in a later hand, "Lydia Woodman Dodge died at Kingston, Caldwell County Missouri, August 4, 1881." Since the abstract of will does not give James Pearce's exact date of death. It was 22 July 1820 but I can't prove it without quoting a genealogy. I have a copy of the 1820 census, of Sempronius TWP. Cayuga Co NY wich shows the widow Phebe and her family living on a farm next to that of her son Giles Pearce, if you want it as added proof. She died there 25 June 1842 but I do not have proof to give you. Her children were all grown with families of their own. She lived not far from Dwight Dodge, who was a minister, and attended his congregation.

Though christened John Stefan Zaniewski, my late husband disliked the name and called himself John Anthony. Due to his severe disease of alcoholism we were not living together at the time of his death. His death certificate is enclosed.

My family has tried several times to get a death certificate for my father, Victor E. Hansen, and been unsuccessful. In case there had been a mistake by the people in Wyandotte Co. KS, I wrote again this spring at the same time I received the copy of my parents' marriage certificate. There is nothing else I can do, but I hope you will overlook it because the Revolutionary War descent is not through him, both of his parents having come from Denmark. His father was a very successful Hardware merchant in LeMars, Iowa. If you want them I can supply you with his mother's death certificate and his father's obituary, but they do not mention Victor, who predeceased his father by many years. My paternal grandparents were Simoni and Karen Christine (Madsen) Hansen. Birth registration in Iowa was not mandatory until 1921. Vic was only 24 years old when he died in Kansas leaving behind me (a 2-year-old) and a pregnant young wife. My sister, Billie Gene Hansen, was born 25 January 1926 at Kingston, MO. She may also wish to join the DAR. She is now living in Columbia, Missouri, with her husband, retired University of Missouri Engineering Professor Allan Pringle.

I wrote to the courthouse at Kingston for death certificates for William Wesley White, Mary Lydia (Dunn) White and Emma A. (Dodge) Dunn. These have not come yet so a reminder letter has been sent. Newspaper obituaries for Grandpa White (which refers to Grandma's 1953 death) and for Great Grandma Dunn are enclosed. These should be alternative proofs of death.

Re: Application of Norma Jewell Hansen Zaniewski
Ancestor George Wood
Dated 29 April 1999 Chapter Code 5-043 WI

Taking the items requested point by point as listed,

Proof of parentage of Lydia W. Pearce and Phebe Wood:
See copy of pages of booklet, Abstracts of Wills of Cayuga Co. New York Vol I by Gertrude A. Barber (1947). Referring to page 114 of the record book, will of James "Pierce" of Sempronius dated 14 March 1820, probated 23 September 1820, which mentions wife Phebe, daughter Lydia and others. I ordered a copy of the will from Cayuga Co. Surrogate's Court, mentioned on the title page and received a reply dated 18 May. They preferred not to search for records that old and referred me to Cayuga Co. Historical Society which I wrote to on 24 May enclosing a check. No response has been received so far, though I am ever hopeful. Until I am able to acquire a copy of the actual document, I am hopeful you will accept this copy of abstract as proof of Lydia's parentage and partial proof of Phebe's marriage to James Pearce. Rhode Island town records show births, but early New York town records do not. My ancestress had to be the one born shortly after they arrived in New York!

Not knowing Rhode Island customs, I wrote to Newport County for a copy of George Wood's will listing Phebe Pearce as his daughter. They referred me to Little Compton, to which I sent a check some time ago but have received no response. I also asked for marriage record.

But except for will contents, the same information is printed in Vital Records of Rhode Island 1636-1850 by James N. Arnold (1893) printed under the Auspices of the Rhode Island General Assembly. In this book, Little Compton - Births and Deaths Vol. IV page 199 it shows that Phebe was daughter of George Wood born Nov 2, 1730 and died June 1820 and his second wife, Desire Gray born July 7, 1735, died March 1822. (copy enclosed here) Phebe was born May 9 1763. The same volume, page 146, shows that Phebe's husband, James Pearce, son of Giles and Mercy (Rouse)(Schreech) Pearce, was born on Aug. 15, 1755 (copy enclosed here). Volume 4, Little Compton Marriages and Intentions Part VI on page 46 shows that James Pearce, son of Giles and Mercy, married Phebe Wood, daughter of George and Desire; married by Rev. Jonathan Ellis on July 2, 1783. (copy enclosed--the print on this very old book was slightly faded.)

It seems to me that vital record books, when they are that specific, ought to be adequate proof of Phebe Wood's descent and marriage to James Pearce.

A second set of copies of Dodge Family Bible pages is enclosed, because answers to questions on next page are answered therein.

(This must be our Lt. George Wood who fought in the Rev. War, for he was the only man of that name in Little Compton at the time--njz)

"By our parties just came in, we have certain accounts that the fort is destroyed; and that the enemy are drawing off. We have about four thousand militia here, and two thousand troops."

The danger by which Fort William Henry was threatened greatly alarmed the Colony. The General Assembly met on August 10th, and not as yet having heard of the loss of Fort William Henry, passed an act which drafted one sixth of the militia of the colony, probably about 1000 men, for service in the relief of Fort William Henry. Col. John Andrews was given the command of this regiment. On August 15th thirty-four prominent men of Providence who were not subject to the draft volunteered their services and signed a paper of that import. Of a muster roll of 113 men who marched out of Newport County in answer to this call, 21 were volunteers.

This Second Rhode Island regiment went no farther than Connecticut, when news was received that Fort William Henry had fallen. The men returned home and the October Assembly after regulating their pay for this service, voted to re-enlist 250 men for service in the army during the pleasure of the General Assembly.

Ninety of these did garrison service at Saratoga. Capt. Ebenezer Whiting was given the command of those who were garrisoned at Fort Edward during the winter.

If the campaign of 1756 had disheartened the English, that of 1757 was still more discouraging. The expedition against Louisburg had come to naught, Fort William Henry had been lost, and from Europe came the still more discouraging news that the Duke of Cumberland had been decisively defeated by D'Estrees.

As well as sending the quota to the Colonial contingent, Rhode Island had strengthened and garrisoned Fort George at Newport, and had also equipped and sent forth many privateers which had made severe and telling inroads upon the enemy's maritime commerce.

The following letter gives a concise description of the conditions in the Colony in 1758;

Describes the 1757 alarm which George Wood marched to, in French & Indian War. This shows he marched to Ct at the least. Further duty, if he did any, is not specified. He had been intending to relieve the tragic Fort William Henry at Lake George (NY).

Seneca Wood, Surrogate.

In the name of God, Amen. I James Pierce of the Town of Sempronius, being low in health, attended with bodily infirmities, but of a sound mind and memory, thanks be to God for the same, and calling to mind the frailty of human nature and the certainty of death, do ordain, constitute and make this my last Will and testament in the following manner, that is to say, — firstly I give my Soul to God that gave it, and my body to the dust from whence it was taken to be buried decently at the discretion of my Executors. And as touching my worldly and temporal affairs and intrust, I order and dispose of in the following manner — I would in the first place that all my just and honest debts be paid and I give to my well beloved Wife, during her natural life one

(Please see both sides, and notice that though James Pearce himself spelled his name "Pearce," the court clerk, with a few exceptions, mis-spelled it "Pierce.")

James died 22 July 1820 in Sempronius NY. This mentions his daughter Lydia, among others. The Dodge Bible shows that Lydia married Dwight Dodge in Sempronius on 09 December 1830.

I also give to my beloved Daughter Lydia Pierce, one bed and bedding with a portion of household furniture to be comfortable to keep house with all — and also to my beloved Daughter Phebe Pierce, one bed and bedding, with a portion of household furniture to be comfortable to keep house with all — Also I give to my beloved Son John Pierce, One dollar to be paid in two years after my decease — And also to my oldest Daughter Deborah Dennison I give one dollar to be paid in two years after my decease — And also, I give to my next Daughter Sarah Jones, one dollar to be paid in two years after my decease — And also I give to my Daughter Susannah Tripp one Dollar to be paid in two years after my decease — And it is understood that my youngest Children are to have their homes at my now dwelling house, until of age — And lastly, as to all the rest residue and remainder of things, I give and bequeath to my beloved Wife Phebe Pierce, whome I hereby appoint Executrix, with my beloved Son Giles Pierce, whom I appoint Executor with her, to this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and twenty

Caldwell County Courthouse
Kingston MO 64650

Attn: Vital Records or Probate

I grew up in the Kingston area and have many happy memories there. Recently I applied for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution, and they asked for a lot of documentation which, hopefully, you can help me provide in spite of the courthouse fires. The later part might be the easiest. They asked for:

1. Marriage record of 31 January 1860 of Lemuel Dunn and Emma Adelia Dodge.

2. Marriage record of 15 March 1898 of William Wesley White and Mary Lydia Dunn.

3. Death record of Dwight Dodge on 23 August 1869.

4. Death record of Lydia W. (Pearce) Dodge on 04 August 1881.

5. Death record of Emma A. (Dodge) Dunn on 31 January 1932.

6. Death record of Lemuel Dunn in 1883. And will if any. I do not know the month or day, but there may be still-existing probate court records from litigation over his assets due to his unfortunately having co-signed a loan called in upon his death. If so, his descendants are probably listed in the papers. I would appreciate receiving a copy of that record if it is not too long--at least of the highlights. It would tell when he died.

7. Death record of Mary Lydia (Dunn) White on 19 Nov. 1953, then residing in Hamilton but buried in Kingston.

8. Death record of William Wesley White on 23 December 1963, then residing in Hamilton but buried in Kingston.

For health reasons I cannot go there in person to look up the records, but will be eternally grateful for your help. Am enclosing a check for $60.00, not knowing the correct amount. If more is needed, let me know. Thanks again!

Sincerely

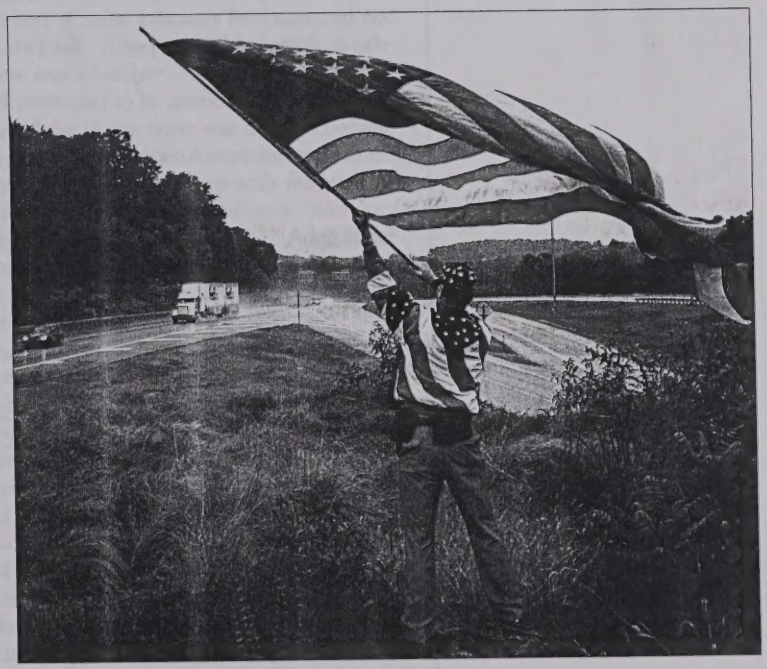
TIME AND AGAIN, AMERICA HAS DEMONSTRATED A RESILIENCE THAT IS ROOTED IN THE REMARKABLE DIVERSITY OF HER PEOPLE

BY GEOFFREY C. WARD



Across the country, Americans responded to terrorist attacks by waving Old Glory.

NOTHING LIKE WHAT TOOK PLACE in New York and Washington on September 11 has ever happened here before. It was unprecedented both in the scale of human damage done and the difficulty of hunting down those who did it. The President has said that we are in for a long, shadowy struggle unlike any we have ever waged. The question is whether this generation of Americans—impatient, unfamiliar with sacrifice, ignorant of the distant world from which the danger comes—will be up to the task.

History can't tell us. Each generation must define itself. But it may be helpful, both as a caution to our current adversaries and as some comfort to ourselves, to remember what earlier generations of Americans did when faced with challenges as great as this one.

Another devastating assault on New York City almost ended the American experiment in self-government before it could get started. In June of 1776, more than 100 British vessels filled with troops anchored off Staten Island—so many that it seemed to one American volunteer as if "all London was afloat." When actual fighting began soon thereafter, George Washington's outnumbered, undertrained force was quickly driven out. Fires destroyed a third of the city, thousands of its terrified residents fled, and its economy collapsed. "I feel mad, vexed, sick and sorry," wrote Colonel Henry Knox. "This is a most terrible event: its consequences are justly to be dreaded." A British officer was delighted: "The fact is [the rebel] army is broken all to pieces, and the spirits of their leaders and their abettors is also broken. . . . I think one may venture to pronounce that it is well nigh over with them."

It was not over, of course. Washington and his army went on to outlast, if not outfight, the mightiest military force on earth. John Adams was surely right when he called ours "this mighty Revolution." It was the first war ever fought in defense of the inalienable rights of all mankind, the first whose outcome could truly be said to matter to every man and woman on earth, the opening signal—distant now but still distinctly heard—for two centuries of revolutions, first in Europe, then in South America, Asia, Africa. It was also the first revolution to declare that legitimate government rests on the consent of the governed; the first to seek to establish a society based on classless equality (save for the tragic exception of black slavery); and the first to proclaim religious freedom.

Little wonder that every subsequent American generation has seen itself as wanting when compared with that of the Founders. Even the young Abraham Lincoln believed the Americans of his time would never be able to match the achievements of the "once hardy, brave and patriotic, but now lamented and departed race of [our] ancestors." Yet when the time of testing came for him and his contemporaries, they did not flinch. It took four ghastly years and cost 620,000 lives, but when the Civil War was finally over, the sin of slavery had been expunged, the Union had been restored and democratic government—Lincoln's "last best hope of earth"—had been preserved.

That American victory, like all our victories, was won by a remarkably diverse people. From the first, our adversaries have mistaken that central strength as weakness. "You can have no conception of what kind of men composed their officers," wrote a Briton of some prisoners he'd captured not long after New York's fall. "[One] was a blacksmith, another a hatter . . . there was a butcher . . . a tanner, a shoemaker . . . yet they all pretended to be gentlemen." Some in the Confederacy believed the Union cause was doomed because the Yankee Army included African-Americans and immigrants from everywhere. "[It] is filled up with the scum of creation," wrote one of Braxton Bragg's privates, "and ours with the best blood of the grand old Southland." Adolf Hitler had his own version of that view: Americans would never be able to defeat the Thousand-Year Reich, he assured his aides, because they were a mongrel people.

We are a mongrel people, and at our best, we glory in it. We've often been at our best since the events of this September. Everywhere, there have been signs of the same kind of resilience that saw our ancestors through—in the search-and-rescue teams made up by Americans of every color and from all over the country, toiling day and night amid the twisted steel; federal officials urging tolerance toward fellow Americans; ordinary people returning to their lives, determined not to surrender to terror.

As we enter into this new and dangerous era, we might keep in mind that 218 years ago this month George Washington returned in triumph to the charred city he had been forced to abandon seven years earlier. The United States had won their independence. But a token British force remained in Manhattan to cover the evacuation of loyalists. November 25, 1783, was the appointed day for them to leave, and Washington and what remained of his weary army wanted to see them go. As the Americans marched slowly down Manhattan Island that morning, the scene was eerie, unsettling: block after block of burned-out buildings, one witness remembered, that "cast [their] grim shadows upon the pavement, imparting an unearthly aspect. . . ." But when the troops reached the Battery, as the redcoats and their sympathizers rowed out to the ships that were to take them away, an American sailor clambered up the flagpole atop Fort George, pulled down the royal ensign and replaced it with the Stars and Stripes. The wind caught it, and soldiers and New Yorkers alike cheered as the American flag flew once again from the tip of Manhattan, just a few blocks from where the twin towers of the World Trade Center would one day stand.

Published printed copy of 1870 US Census, Caldwell Co. MO page. (Note: compiler mistook Lemuel Dunn's first name for Samuel, which looks much the same in old writing. Lydia (Pearce) Dodge is here shown living between the homes of the families of her sons Billy and Obadiah on one side and her daughter Emma (Dodge) Dunn on the other.)

should submit to be robbed by a few Indians." He sends his thanks to a certain Chickasaw warrior for "resenting the murder of one of our people." "Let the Chickasaw know that I greatly approve of his conduct, and have a real esteem for him." He wishes to know whether "the Emperor," or "Old Hop" is the head man of the Cherokees. He exhorts Pearis to stir up the Indians to prevent the building of forts by the French."

His actual words were, "I always (till now) understood the Emperor was their chief man. If Old Hop is a greater man, I shall hereafter notice him as such." Old Hop, so-called because of an injury during his youth, was a "beloved man" of the Cherokee Nation. Such men were often more powerful than titular rulers.

Dinwiddie's first envoy to the Indians, because he knew of no other, had been Abraham Smith, an old trader whom the Indians had held in contempt. Next he sent 20-year-old Nathaniel Gist to the Emperor with a King George medal and a letter soliciting warriors against the Shawnees. Though Nathaniel was popular with them, the mission failed, partly because of an ongoing quarrel between him and Richard Pearis, who was then heavily indebted to Christopher Gist for trading goods. Though the Indians saw through it and were amused, Richard pretended in a message to Old Hop that the youth had swiped the governor's letter from him. Dinwiddie soon learned that Richard was the most influential of the Virginia traders.

Despite the effort to enlist Cherokees and Catawbas for Braddock's Army, only a handful responded, and even those soon dropped out, which may have been for the better because of that worthy's low esteem for the race. Some Delawares who had been used as scouts said, "He was a bad man. He never seemed satisfied with us." and deserted just when, had they still been scouting, they could have warned the army of the ambush waiting for them on the Monongahela. Braddock did not consider even the Colonists as very worthy. Ironically, regarding the French and Indians, his dying words were, "Another day we will know how better to deal with them."

Preceding pages tell us about brother George Pearis Jr. on the Forks of the Roanoke, and how the time of Braddock's defeat coincided with the massacre at Drapers Meadow close by. On 8 July 1755 the northern Indians killed Col. James Patton and several others. They stole his stores of ammunition, and took several prisoners, among them the pregnant Mrs. William Ingles and two little boys whom they carried to the Shawnee Towns on the Scioto, across the Ohio. Ingles and Draper did all they could to secure their return. Some say Ingles even went to Williamsburg. In another raid, Cherokee trader Samuel Stalnacker was captured by northern Indians, his wife and son Adam killed and scalped. History does not tell us whether messages passed back and forth between brothers George and Richard, but we can well imagine they must have.

descended from any Revolutionary ancestor, his parents having come from Denmark. I even wrote to Wyandotte Co. KS requesting his death certificate again. The clerk wrote back, returned my money and wished me good luck.)

Back to George Wood--they asked for his will but it did not arrive in time so they accepted the Rhode Island Vital Records stapled next to the abstract of James Pearce's will--that will also did not arrive in time. (Poor Phebe (Wood) Pearce lost her father to death in March 1820 and her husband three months later. How sad she must have been!) The application could never have succeeded without the Dodge Bible copies. I'm so happy I could make good use of them for the benefit of us all while Mama was still in good health and agility. The other papers clipped in that group are self-explanatory.

The rest of the papers here were received in October or November, too late to be submitted but very valuable nevertheless, and I know you will treasure them as historic papers. You will note from George's will that he became a Captain eventually, I suppose after the war. He was also in the French and Indian War, having marched to the Alarm of August 1757. Did I send you that data? If not please ask. We have to wait another six months to file a Supplemental on a second Rev. Ancestor, and then I'll file on James Pearce's father, Giles Pearce. As you will see in the enclosed papers, we already have proof of descent from him. He was a private from Rhode Island. I don't know whether he had any involvement with F/I War.

I was rather confident of the Wood application being accepted eventually, but the Averill one was touch-and-go. There was no question of Philo being Moses' son, for DAR had copy of his will, but without using the Averill Genealogy there was only an abundance of secondary evidence that Norman was Philo's son. Philo died before the 1850 census, which would otherwise have shown them living next-door to each other. A genealogist in McDonough Co sent me some land Abstract info and I found a little more in Utah. (Haven't yet organized & typed up my notes--maybe in January.) Norman bought some of the land from another man; & a year or 2 before he died Philo sold the farm to Norman & brother Henry. Having thus provided for his children, neither Philo nor Rebecca had wills or probates. Death certificates were not required in Kansas in 1902, so no death certificate exists to show his parentage, though the 1900 census does show he was born in IN, father in CT & mo. in NY. (Also sent Boone Co IA mge certif of Sarah & John White, Cemetery records of John W's IA death & W.W & Mary White's death.) My friend Jeane's son is a corporate lawyer living in Washington DC. He makes his living doing business in various 3rd-world countries abroad & through him she is able to get cheap airfare & go abroad herself. She went to DC in Sept to see the new baby grandson & while there went to DAR Hdq. in person. Somehow she was able to persuade them that the Averill Family while in Kansas owned Bible records proving Norman was Philo's son, and giving all the B-M-D information--WHICH IS TRUE. Belonging to the DAR is very SPECIAL but not cheap. $50.00 to join including first year's dues, so save up your pennies.

Captain Samuel Ellis of Sturbridge was a very brave and fine, hard-working properous pioneer. Nobody has ever applied under his record and he deserve the honor. Sturbridge VR show his grand-daughter Keziah's marriage to Levi Dodge, but neither S.B. nor Sutton VR show Dwight's birth--which we have fr Dodge Bible. It is our only missing link to prove. In Utah I spent much time extracting Croyden NH town records. Have voluminous material not yet organized--will fill you in later. It will be very difficult, but hope to succeed eventually. More about Levi Dodge will be sent to you later—probably in 2000 AD.

I love you very much. Happy Thanksgiving. Your Sis,

Thomas "Bud"

P.S. Sylvan Griffith called recently. He sounds like a very nice man. He later sent me a copy of a certificate of land entry 24 May 1900 on Venango Co. PA by Vard Griffith, Jacob Dickson & Moses Smith next door to David Dodge's sister Sally and her husband John "Jackie" Garvin. (My own records show David's oldest bro. John had married a Woolsey. If you befriend He said he sent you a copy of the paper.

WESLEY WHITE, 94, DIES

William Wesley White, son of John Wesley White and Sarah Jane Averall White, was born Jan. 1, 1869, near Mt. Pleasant, Kans. He died Dec. 23, 1963, at the Elliott Rest Home in Hamilton at the age of 94 years, 11 months and 23 days.

June 1999

Dear Billie + Allen —

Mama said Allen has had his surgery + she hopes for a good recovery though the procedure took longer than expected. I sure hope you get better soon, Allen — and that you are also recovering, Billie! She said they haven't called for James yet and everyone is getting anxious.

As you may have heard, both Janine + Nate had recent hospitalizations. Nate has Crohn's Disease + other stuff, so it is serious, but he is now active + tries to keep going + to lead a normal life (as is) for experimental drugs. That disease usually has a bad outcome, but we keep hoping. I myself try to keep healthy by yard work, gardening + so on.

I promised to keep you posted about the DAR applications, and DO NOT have good news to share yet because they have changed their policy and do not allow genealogies as proof of descent any more. Having recently talked to many members, MOST of them DID use genealogies as proof, but that does not help us.

So I've been scrabbling around + also spending way too much trying to fill in proof of every single generation. As to Averill, the only thing still lacking is to prove Norman C. was son of Phila. Phila + Richard both died in 1844 so on or the 1840 but not 1850 McDonough & IL census. Mad. Courthouse refused to handle anything over 75 years and have STAFF for even for that but gave name of a genealogist also, I hope will search the files to see if Phila left any will or probate or deed of gift of land. That is a stretch, but all I can think of. He was at least 65 when they moved there, but did a habit of owning land. But there was a big depression in 1837 and that was the frontier. Miami Co. KS Courthouse searched + could not find death records for Norman or Martha. I had hoped that could give his father's name. (Have since learned MO did not have death certificates until 1910 — so is KS compliance was spotty.) Can you think of any alternative? I can't see microfilm well any more — don't know if LDS have it or not. The records in Mad. Co + at the University there are open to the public but I can't drive there because of eyesight.

AVERILL

Hope when

I'm enclosing a lot of precious records you will want to have anyway.

I feel bad about letting Janine down – she wanted to enter DAR under Averill – so did Elise! Haven't told them yet.

With my application on Lt. George Wood, the hangup is proving Lydia W Pearce was James Pearce + Phebe Wood's daughter. I've written to Cayuga Co NY – they cost $ 70^{00} a file just to look, no personal checks – Cashiers check's or money order only! I think they have generally is, but they gave me the address of the Historical Society. So I wrote them but just recently. It takes forever to get an answer. (I only assume James died in Sempronius because his widow Phebe was there that year – 1820 census.) But she could have just recently gone there to be with her Giles. If James left a will mentioning his children, we can succeed though I still have Rhode Island records to acquire. They do exist.

My friend in the DAR sent for + just received copy of an application in which a descendant of Lydia's oldest sister Deborah enrolled under Lydia's grandpa – Giles Pearce who married widow Mercy (Rowse) Schreach. That lady used Little Compton families as proof — but now the rules have changed + they won't let me see that same book. They are even making me write to Rhode Island for a copy of Lt George Wood's will – Newport County formed me down so I have written to Little Compton – no reply so far. Hope they are not so hard nosed. Those who should help give the runaround instead. I feel pretty blue about it all.

Just so you know, this makes two Rhode Island ancestors they STUCK Pearce/Wood let us in under – Lydia's maternal and paternal grandfathers!

Ellis

I have no evidence any Dodge ancestor forget, but Rev. Dwight Dodge's great grandfather, Captain Samuel Ellis did. The hangup here is it is proving that Dwight's parents were Levi and Keziah (Ellis) Dodge. I can prove the rest without genealogists by using vital records of Stebridge (which does not list his birth but does have Levi + Keziah's marriage + the rest) plus the Dodge Bible pages and censuses.

I plan to go to Salt Lake City Oct 6th if all goes well + hope Near Hampshire records will have enough on Levi Dodge (Charlie + Sullivan Co records) to prove the relationship — though Levi was not terribly well fixed – lived on his father's land not his own? Keziah was left a widow even more certain than Emma Dodge Dean!

ANY IDEAS?

Your loving sister

Mama

(When + if it gets to the point I can show you our work to the DAR they will want both your birth certificate + Allen. You should send for them anyway if you do not have them – also your marriage records. Maybe you have all this already.

Enclosed is all the Wilcox portion but as Samuel Ellis' but it matches the Mass. stamps I already sent. (7 mm)

June 1999

Billie--

I'm anxious to hear how you and Allan interpret these papers, for they leave me a little confused.

The writing on the Administrator's Bond Affidavit is faint, so if you can't read it well, it says,

"Lemuel Dunn died intestate, and without leaving any will, at Kingston, Caldwell County, Missouri on the_____day of March AD 1883, leaving as heirs, Emma A, Dunn widow, Dwight Dunn son, Mary Dunn daughter, John Dunn son, Benjamin Dunn son, Cynthia J. Nelson daughter, Sarah M. McLellan daughter, Kate A. Sackman daughter, Joseph L. Dunn grandson, Ella Dunn granddaughter, Cordie Dunn granddaughter (all three children of Rice A. Dunn, son, deceased) and all residing in Caldwell County Mo., and also George W. Dunn and Lemuel Dunn sons, residing in the County of_____in the State of California."

Norma

PS

This solves the problem of why George and Lemuel III fail to show up on Missouri censuses after they grow up. Wonder if descendants of one of those sons are the people who submitted the sealed LDS entries showing up on the IGA?

It is not so stated in the papers, but since we already know that Rice Allen Dunn's wife was also dead as of 1879, their three children were orphans and undoubtedly expected to receive their father's share in the estate.

Grandma used to complain about orphans receiving money her mother needed to raise her and her brothers. I don't know whom the three little orphans were living with--maybe their maternal grandparents of other relatives? Later on I asked Mama what Grandma had been talking about and she said Lemuel had co-signed a note for an orphanage, which was called in upon his death. I suspect she was confused, too, for these papers don't mention anything like that, though they list bad debts. Were they to him or from him?--I can't tell. Grandma was 14 but probably immature and misunderstood a lot. Part of this is very sad, for they show Great-Grandma Emma beside herself with grief and worry about finances, and large administrative fees by people taking advantage of the situation. So young, only 19 at marriage with Lemuel undoubtedly ruling the roost. Her older half-brother John was supposedly helping but it looks like he was no help or worse.

The 1884 tax roll shows several pieces of real estate; I don't know what they were worth, but all but their little house, if they got that, were evidently sold to meet the obligations. Lemuel had a gold watch that went fast. The sale of personal property is sad and pathetic. At least son Dwight Dunn got the oldest buggy, brother Billy Dodge the wheelbarrow and Emma a Bee (?) stand.

It being in March, perhaps Great Grandpa took suddenly sick (of heart attack or pneumonia?) since he was experienced enough to make out a will if he could. After reading this, how do you interpret the "orphan" story???

Subject: Questions sent to Caldwell County Court House

Ms Janiewski -

Thank you for your enquery on the Dunn and Dodge Family. The court house at this time does not have the time to do genealogical studies; so they have been giveing all of that work to me. I have been doeing this type of work in the area for 11 yrs. and have had satisfactory results. I also thank you for the $60.00 check you sent with the request. It will be put into a fund that has been started; for a new non-profit Corp. called <Caldwell County Cares>. It will be for a museum, publications, and genealogecal library and studies of Caldwell County. We will be open Tues.-Sun. (Tentative Days only.

At this time I have been able to locate 7 of the 8 questions you ask. I have copies of #1 - #2 - #3 and #6. You will find these in the envelope.

As for #6 if they will not accept the proof of Samuel Dunn death with inlored record of Estate, within Caldwell County Court Records, I may be able to come up with something else. Let me know if you wish.

The only one that may give me trouble is #4 Lydia W (Pearce) Dodge, death date. August 4, 1881. But I have not covered some of my sources, at this time.

Hope this information will get you started. You will hear from me next week. I will send more.

#5 & #8 came from files I have at home, from Hamilton Mo. newspapers.

Thanks Again

Subject: Questions sent to Caldwell County Court House.

Mrs Janiewski-

Thank you for your enquiry on the Munn and Hodge family. The court house at this time does not have the time to do genealogical studies; so they have been giving all of that work to me. I have been doing this type of work in the area for 11 yrs. and have had satisfactory results. I also thank you for the $60.00 check you sent with the request. It will be put into a fund that has been started; for a new non-profit Corp. called "Caldwell County Cares". It will be for a museum, publications, and genealogical library and studies of Caldwell County. We will be open Tues.-Sun. "Centennial" Days only.
